KVIC grants for Rural Industries

1164. SHRI DINKARRAO GOVINDRAO PATIL: Will the Minister of INDUSTRY be pleased to state:

(a) whether industries set up in rural areas have become eligible for KVIC grants; and

(b) if so, what are the details thereof?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE DEPARTMENT OF INDUSTRIAL DEVELOPMENT IN THE MINISTRY OF INDUSTRY (SHRI M. ARUNACHALAM): (a) and (b) The Khadi and Village Industries Programmes are being implemented through respective State Khadi and Village Industries Boards, Registered institutions and Cooperative Societies for which KVIC provides financial assistance which includes grants as per pattern of assistance applicable to various Khadi and Village Industries Programmes. Generally grants are not given alone to any unit but given only with the matching loan component. Pattern of assistance differs from industry to industry and within industry from scheme to scheme. Managerial grant is given only to registered institutions/cooperative societies subject to prescribed conditions. Recently the Government has re-defined 'Village Industry' by amending the KVIC Act, with a view to widen the scope of village industries under the purview of KVIC. According to the amended Act, any industry having a capital investment of Rs. 15,000 per head of employment and located in rural area is eligible for KVIC assistance. This is intended to help more number of people and encourage village industries in rural areas only to accelerate the pace of rural industrialisation. KVIC proposes to take up about 25 new industries under its aegis for promotion during 1988-89. The pattern of assistance for these industries are under formulation.
